LVIIIB	6	1	Letter from Jim J. Tozzi, Director, MBS, to Dr. John McLaughlin, The McLaughlin Group National Review. Dated: 8/22/85. Subj: "Two Deficits in Washington are getting a lot of attention: 1) the fiscal deficit and 2) the trade deficit. However, another deficit exists--the regulatory deficit, that is, the difference between the cost of regulations and their benefits. Recently, the Reagan Administration submitted a regulatory budget to the Congress. You being interested in government proceedings, I thought you might be interested in the attached paper which describes the recent submission by the President of the first regulatory budget to the Congress."
LVIIIB	7	1	Letter from Jim J. Tozzi, Director, MBS, to Mr. Robert Semple, Editor, Op-Ed Page, The New York Times . Subj: "During the eleven years I worked in the White House Office of Management and Budget, the press reported on my work. I am now in a position to review the work of my successors. Consequently, I have prepared a short article on a new budget being developed in Washington--the regulatory budget. After discussing the article with Dave Burnham, he suggested I forward it to you for your consideration."
LVIIIB	8	1-3	Identical to volume 55 document £29.

Volume	Document	Pages	Notes
LVIIIB	9	1	Letter from Jim J. Tozzi, Director, MBS, to Mr. David Burnham, The New York Times . Dated: 8/27/85. Subj: "I read with interest regarding the NCIC. As I recall that system was cleared under the Paperwork Reduction Act and, initially, I thought we placed it on a trial basis to safeguard against the events mentioned in your article. A week ago I sent my article to the Op-Ed editor. Is it the policy of the Times to notify, in writing, the writer of acceptance or rejection of the article?"
LVIIIB	10	1	Letter from Jim J. Tozzi, Director, MBS to Mr. Dave Burnham, The New York Times Dated: 8/10/85. Subj: "As we discussed, I think the submission of the regulatory budget is a very significant event. In the attached article, I would appreciate your views on the merits of my submitting it to the Times for publication."
